SCHEME OF EVALUATION - BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS (BFA)

DR. A.P.J. ABDUL KALAM TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY
(Formerly UP Technical University)

The discussion in the meeting of BOS held on 1st September 2016 in chamber of Controller of Examination Dr. J.P. Pandey led to the conclusion that whatever changes were made in the new syllabus of semester I will be further discussed with the faculty of VIFT and experts. Accordingly discussions were made with the faculty of VIFT and experts. Following decisions were taken:

- The changes in old syllabus based on CBCS (Choice Based Credit System) with new codes (RFD XXX) will be applicable only for the 1st year, session 2016-17.
- The students of III to VIII semesters during the session 2016-17 will follow the old syllabus.
- The committee will finalise the syllabus for III to VIII semesters on the basis of CBCS with new codes by the end of December 2016. Therefore changes in the syllabus for III to VIII semester will be applicable only from the session 2017-18 onwards.

1. General Proficiency (GP) which is an audit paper, the marks will not be applicable from 2016-17 onwards.

2. Name of the subject code RFD-153 Elements of Design will be named as RFD-153 Basic Design.

3. For the syllabus based on CBCS from session 2016-17 will have code RFD-XXX.

4. RFD-101 is Introduction to Textile and Apparel Industry is ok. No need to change the name of the subject.

5. As per caliber and level of understanding of students, the subject RFD-104 Organisational behaviour should be shifted to 4th & 5th semester.

6. The subject Cultural Studies may be given a code RFD-102. No need to change the name of the subject.

6.1 It is felt that the subject name Socio Cultural Phenomenon of Fashion, does not convey the real spirit of the contents of subject because the subject contents relate to Cultural Studies which is related to different civilizations and communities but not the fashion as such. Therefore the appropriate /suitable name of the subject is RFD-102 Cultural Studies.

6.2 As far as changes in the units of RFD-102 are concerned, following suggestions were made:

6.2.1 Unit I - Fashion and Social Visibility: As the theories relate to the contents of Unit III of the subject NFD-702 Consumer Behaviour and Fashion Marketing 7th semester It was suggested that the theories of Thurston Veblen and George Simmel may be shifted to the last topic of Unit III of NFD-702 Consumer Behaviour and Fashion Marketing from the year 2017-18.

6.2.2 Unit I - Evolution of Fashion: it is already covered in the subject NFD-302 Historic Costume of 3rd semester. Hence it can be excluded from Unit I.

6.2.3 Unit II – Sociological Aspects of Clothing: it is already covered in NFD-702 Consumer Behaviour and Fashion Marketing of 7th semester. Hence it can be excluded from Unit II.

6.2.4 Unit III – Understanding the Trends: it already exists in Unit IV of NFD-702 Consumer Behaviour and Fashion Marketing of 7th semester. Hence it can be excluded from Unit III.

6.2.5 Unit IV: Categories of Culture (Material Culture & Symbolic Culture) has been retained in Unit I in the current year 2016-17.

6.2.6 Unit V: Society vs. Culture: it is already covered in Unit II and III of NFD-109 Cultural Studies. Hence it can be excluded from Unit IV.

7. Name of the subject RFD-157 Environmental Studies may be replaced by Socio Cultural Environment & Enterprises.

8. RFD-103 Professional Communication contents have been changed according to Fashion Designing student's requirement.

9. The subject RFD-154 Computer Applications will be considered as practical subject instead of previously defined theory subject.

10. The status of RFD-155 Craft Appreciation has been discussed with experts and faculty of VIFT. It is agreed that is a modular practical subject of semester I. The subject carries 100 marks with two projects. The projects need to be completed within the 1st semester as marks have to be included in mark sheet. The projects therefore cannot be shifted to vacations as summer internship projects.

11. Following subjects will be remain same with no amendment in syllabus

(a) RFD-151 Basic Drawing
(b) RFD-152 Material Studies-I
(c) RFD-156 Research Skill For Design

* On the basis of above suggestions & decisions the revised syllabus of RFD-102 Cultural Studies is attached as Annexure-I for putting the same on the AKTU website.

* The final draft of the practical modular subject RFD-155 Craft Appreciation is also attached as Annexure-II for putting the same on the AKTU website.
